

Dam-001

Designed by Fabio Flora, this stylish modular unit is a practical and distinctive piece, suited to a wide range of spaces. The Dam 001 bathroom unit, from Italian company Indaf sas, is a superb example of Italian craftsmanship, with simple forms and quality materials.

Perfect for luxury spas, hotels, beauty parlours and resorts, the finely crafted DAM 001 unit would be a stylish, luxurious and elegant addition to any bathroom space.

Made of the highest quality materials, the Dam 001's structure is solid walnut - fixed with dovetail joints to provide a solid base - with laminated solid walnut sides. The surface and sink are carved from a single block of Etna lava stone.

The top cupboards have sliding shutters with a glass front, inside boasting shelves and backs in painted glass. The Dam 001 unit is also available with a beech or oak frame, and with the sink and tops in Botticino marble or Persian black stone.
